Data Protection

The Company may disclose data and information relating to the Exhibitor (including, without limitation, data relating to its representatives, employees, agents, officers or contractors) ("Data") to any member of the Company's group (which means its ultimate holding company and its subsidiaries from time to time, including, without limitation, RASE). The Company may also disclose the Data to any purchaser or proposed purchaser of any company in the Company's group, or any business or part of a business operated by any company in the Company's group.

The Company may also disclose Data to third parties (including, without limitation, the Authorities) if it is under (or reasonably believes it is under) a duty to disclose or share Data in order to (1) comply with any legal obligation, or (2) enforce or apply the Contract or any other agreements relating to the Exhibition, or (3) protect the rights, property, or other companies and organisations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction and in connection with the show Catalogue. Exhibitor's details will be used to compile the livestock catalogue(s), and those exhibitors who receive an award will have their name and county posted on the Royal Show website and their name and address details made available to the National Press.

The Company may transfer Data to, and store it at, a destination outside the European Economic Area.

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, the data controller of the Data is The Royal Agricultural Society of England, Stoneleigh Park, Warwickshire, CV8 2LZ and all queries in relation to the use of Data should be directed to RASE at the above address.
